

JOE VON HÜNERBEIN
SCREENWRITER

Did you know that you can fit up to twenty beercans in a schoolbag? Quite valuable knowhow, but it doesn't really help passing your exams, so Joe tries his luck in Showbusiness. Two years of combat as a musicvideo producer in London are followed by nearly two decades of comedy, at last as a late night show producer.

In the year 2020 Joe moves to Berlin and turns to fiction. After learning the craft of screenwriting, he nails his very first pitch and soon a beautiful little TV series is flickering on german TV screens.
